This Isn't About a Book. This Is About Your Story.

Your social media launch plan — ZL Buy a House

Prepared by Quan Zou · Monmac Labs · March 2026

---

You are a business owner and mother of two daughters. And where others in your position might feel the weight of it all — the business, the caregiving, the daily demands — you chose to do something different.

You asked a different question. Not why me, but what can I create from this?

The answer is a children's coloring book that teaches kids about buying a home. But more than that, it's a record. A legacy. A way of showing your daughters — and every family watching — that the challenges don't define you. What you build in spite of them does.

The families who will connect with this story aren't just real estate buyers. They're parents raising kids with their own challenges. Parents who want to raise entrepreneurial children. Anyone who has ever looked at a hard situation and decided to make something beautiful from it instead.

The book is one manifestation. The story is the real product. And the story is what sells everything.

> Who you speak to: Mothers and parents who want to raise entrepreneurial, capable kids. Families navigating challenges of their own. Realtors, title companies, mortgage brokers, home inspectors, and insurance agents — everyone in the real estate ecosystem who wants to build real relationships with real families.

WHAT WE HEARD

Before the plan — here's what we absorbed.

YOUR ULTIMATE GOAL

Have the vision, create the product — and have someone else handle the rest. More time for your family, your health, your garden. Zou growing up knowing that building things is just normal.

YOUR NON-NEGOTIABLE

Authenticity above everything. No AI avatars. No manufactured persona. You are the brand — and your audience will feel the difference between real and performed.

WHAT YOU'RE REALLY BUILDING

A platform, not just a product. The book is the beginning. The brand can evolve. You want a foundation that grows with you — not a one-time campaign.

YOUR REVENUE TARGET

$1M annual revenue. Based on the B2B model — title companies, lenders, insurers buying in bulk — it's a realistic goal, not just a dream. The math works.

WHAT MAKES YOU STOP SCROLLING

Wise, calm people. A powerful opening line. Real family moments. Home remedies. Practical ideas you can actually use. A child saying something brilliant.

HOW THIS NEEDS TO FEEL

Not like you're selling. Like you're sharing your life — and the book is part of it. The community builds because people trust you, not because they saw an ad.

Here's What We're Building Together.

Two phases: a one-time setup that gives you everything you need to launch strong, and monthly support that keeps momentum going while you focus on what matters most.

- Strategy Walkthrough Call (60 min)
  We walk through everything together. You leave knowing exactly what to do and in what order.

For ongoing support, choose the tier that fits how involved you want to be. The more you want off your plate, the higher the tier.

WHAT YOU'LL BE KNOWN FOR

Your Content Pillars.

Every post, video, and story draws from five pillars — building a complete picture of who you are, not just what you're selling.

🌱

Family & Legacy

Zou. Liana. Tony. The greenhouse. Building things together. The everyday moments that are actually the whole point.

💡

Entrepreneurial Mindset

Teaching kids that creating is normal. Turning challenges into strength. The mindset that made this book possible.

🏠

The Book Journey

Behind the scenes. How ZL came to be. Page reveals. Printing updates. The road to launch day.

🌿

Health & Home

Donkey milk. Composted soil. Homemade yogurt. Lemon powder. Things you do that others would love to know about.

💪

Strength Over Circumstance

Not inspiration content. Real talk about choosing to create instead of collapse. This is what connects you to every parent who's ever had to fight for something.

🎯

Real Estate & Business

Why realtors need this. How title companies use it. The B2B opportunity explained — for the professional audience following your brand.
